For Teen Readers
This Is What It Feels Like, by Rebecca Barrow (HarperTeen, $17.99) "This is a story of three young women who used to be inseparable: Dia, a young mother; Jules, a punk lesbian; and Hanna, a recovering alcoholic. Fate (and a $15,000 prize) bring them back together, reigniting their all-girl rock band in a whole new chapter of their lives. Barrow invents incredible, real lives that anyone can connect with immediately. How beautiful she makes every seemingly ordinary life. I implore any fan of contemporary fiction to give it a read, because it has everything you could ever want." —Andrew King, University Book Store, Seattle, WA
