Harold Loves His Woolly Hat, by Vern Kousky (Schwartz & Wade, $17.99)

"This is a sweet story with even sweeter illustrations. Harold's beloved woolly hat is stolen by a crow who just won't give it back. But when Harold learns that his hat is being put to good use, as well as all the trinkets he's offered in trade, he's happy to have helped and realizes he doesn't need his hat to know that he's special. A great book that teaches that it's not what we have but what we do that matters." —Tildy Banker-Johnson, Belmont Books, Belmont, MA
