For Ages 9 to 12
The Oddmire, Book 1: Changeling, by William Ritter (Algonquin Young Readers, $16.95) "The Oddmire is just a great story, one of wonderment, magic, and family. It is reminiscent of the work of Kelly Barnhill, with its ode to otherness and a bit of darkness, but with humor and heart liberally sprinkled throughout. It will be an easy and fun book to sell to younger middle-grade kids who liked BOB and stories with just enough scary to send a bit of a shiver, but enough light to make it through to the end.” —Liesl Freudenstein, Boulder Book Store, Boulder, CO

For Teen Readers
Shatter the Sky, by Rebecca Kim Wells (Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers, $18.99) "If you need to be reminded of how incredibly cool books with dragons are, you should really already be reading this book. Showcasing solid fantasy world-building, Rebecca Kim Wells’ story starts when prophetic agents of the empire force Maren’s girlfriend, Kaia, to leave her home. Maren follows in a rage and hatches a plan to steal a dragon from the stronghold and save the one she loves. Wells’ writing is immersive; this is one of those novels you sink into. And, come on, there’s dragons.” —Nichole Cousins, White Birch Books, North Conway, NH
