Another Indie Favorite
Machine: A Novel, by Susan Steinberg (Graywolf Press, $15) "Machine is like no book I have encountered before. Lyrically written prose slowly uncovers the details of the mysterious death of one of the young local girls in a small vacation town. In snippets, we see this world through the perspective of another girl, who is shocking in her honesty about how she navigates life as a young woman in this community of locals versus summer residents. Haunting and beautifully constructed." —Hillary Smith, Copperfield's Books, Sebastopol, CA
