Other Indie Favorites

Sin Eater: A Novel, by Megan Campisi (Atria Books, $27) “Oh my. Megan Campisi’s Sin Eater completely took me by surprise. It is a wholly unique combination of fantasy, mystery, and historical fiction. Filled with intriguing characters and vivid imagery, this inventive tale will immerse readers in the deceit and intrigue of the royal court. Campisi’s narrator is what really sets this novel apart—the sin eater, a woman called to hear the sins of the dying and consume the foods that represent them. A dark, thrilling read!” —John McManus, Main Point Books, Wayne, PA

The Roxy Letters: A Novel, by Mary Pauline Lowry (Simon & Schuster, $26) “Move over Bridget Jones, Roxy is here to stay! Thank goddess! I loved every sentence of The Roxy Letters; I found myself laughing out loud at some of her wacky antics. I also loved the quirky cast of characters that danced across the pages, and I think Roxy is the perfect antihero for the new millennium. I can’t wait to see where Mary Pauline Lowry’s career is headed!” —Kathleen Caldwell, A Great Good Place for Books, Oakland, CA
