Another Indie Favorite

In West Mills: A Novel, by De’Shawn Charles Winslow (Bloomsbury Publishing, $16) "In West Mills is a beautiful and cohesive debut. Winslow has written the character of Knot Centre, a woman who speaks her mind—for better or for worse—and who is passionate, intelligent, and stubborn to a fault. The events of the novel take place from the 1940s to the 1980s, allowing readers to watch as fateful decisions and their consequences play out for the city's citizens. In such a small town, secrets weigh heavy and threaten to tear people apart, but Winslow’s characters are never fully taken under by their sorrows—a rarity in literature today." —Margaret Leonard, Dotters Books, Eau Claire, WI
