For Ages 9 to 12

The Places We Sleep, by Caroline DuBois (Holiday House, $16.99) "This middle grade novel-in-verse follows Abbey, the only child in a military family who is adjusting a new school for the 2001–2002 school year. On September 11, Abbey gets her first period. Abbey grapples with love and loss, family and friends, finding her passion, and connecting to her parents. A beautiful book that effectively captures the post-9/11 world from a 12-year-old's perspective." —Kate Storhoff, Bookmarks, Winston-Salem, NC

For Teen Readers

Bookish and the Beast, by Ashley Poston (Quirk Books, $18.99) "I devoured this book in one perfect sitting. I relished every bit of Rosie and Vance's hard-won romance, every cozy moment in the library, and the Howl's Moving Castle references. There's just nothing out there quite like the Once Upon a Con series; it's geeky, witty, and genuinely comforting." —Anna Bright, One More Page Books, Arlington, VA
