Another Indie Favorite

FKA USA: A Novel, by Reed King (Flatiron Books, $17.99)
“This book is a wild ride through a post-dissolution, post-apocalyptic United States beginning a mere decade from now and continuing to the end of the 21st century. Despite the litany of cascading disasters—mass extinctions, warring androids, southern California dropping into the ocean, conflicts between different corporations controlling different sections of the former USA, mind control, goat-human hybrids, and more—Reed King injects a measure of hilarity into his tale. At the same time harrowing and hysterical, this is a great book by a visionary author. Highly recommended.” —Edward Newton, The Literate Lizard, Sedona, AZ
