Other Indie Favorites

The Butchers' Blessing: A Novel, by Ruth Gilligan (Tin House Books, $25.95) "An extraordinary novel of quiet turmoil, filled with the clash of generations, beliefs, and realities. A beautiful tale of the strife of traditions in a changing Ireland, woven together with the threads of a modern-day mystery. Perhaps the most elegant bit is the underlying story of a girl trying desperately to hold together the traditions of men. Impossible to put down and harder to forget, this novel lingers and feels like fog." —Carrie Koepke, Skylark Bookshop, Columbia, MO

The Office of Historical Corrections: A Novella and Stories, by Danielle Evans (Riverhead Books, $27) "I have been holding my breath for Danielle Evans' next book of short stories since Before You Suffocate Your Own Fool Self, and The Office of Historical Corrections was worth the wait. She delivers the same great storytelling, insight, and sharp cultural commentary. Her touch on themes usually associated with older people, such as redemption, reconciliation, and propitiation, moved me. I read the whole collection in two days." —Miesha Headen, Loganberry Books, Shaker Heights, OH
