Another Indie Favorite
How to Fail at Flirting: A Novel, by Denise Williams (Berkley, $16)
“Sweet romance about a professor who decides to take a chance when she finds herself out at a bar by herself seated next to a handsome man in town. Naya never would have imagined that their one-night stand would turn into a week-long fling with the potential for even more. And because of her toxic past relationships, she is hesitant to trust Jake. I loved reading about a professor as a romance leading lady!” —Kate Storhoff, Bookmarks, Winston-Salem, NC
