Folklor: A Novel, by Angela Mi Young Hur (Erewhon, $26.95) “At its heart, Folklor is a haunting and lyrical novel about mythology, science, generational trauma, and identity, but it’s also much more. I took my time reading this since I wanted to really stop and think about the questions it raised. A truly memorable, genre-bending reading experience!” —Grace Rajendran, University Book Store, Seattle, WA

Hot Stew: A Novel, by Fiona Mozley (Algonquin Books, $26.95) “A young millionaire wants to turn an old Soho brothel into luxury condos, but the tenants aren’t going to leave without a fight. A riveting tale about wealth, class, gentrification, power, and gender; this story shows readers just how unjust the world can be. A 2021 must-read!” —Jennie Minor, Flyleaf Books, Chapel Hill, NC
