For Ages 8+:
Anybody Here Seen Frenchie?, by Leslie Connor (Katherine Tegen Books, $16.99) “A heartwarming story that celebrates neurodiversity, family, friendship, and a community coming together to face adversity with love, patience, and hope. Leslie Connor uplifts and inspires us to be kinder to ourselves and our world.” —Alyssa Raymond, Copper Dog Books, Beverly, MA

For Teen Readers
What We Harvest, by Ann Fraistat (Delacorte Press, $18.99) “Filled with iridescent wheat, bioluminescent melons, and a mercury-esque blight, Hollow’s End is perfect for impending doom. Fraistat’s debut shows the comforts and horrors of small towns, old families, and the secrets they bury.” —Laura Graveline, Brazos Bookstore, Houston, TX
