Witches: A Novel, by Brenda Lozano, Heather Cleary (Transl.) (Catapult, $26)

“Witches features the most distinctive voice I’ve come across in fiction this year. Feliciana’s life as an indigenous healer — or curandera — is hypnotic. Her story combines with Zoe’s to highlight women striving to find their own voices.” —Jude Burke-Lewis, Square Books, Oxford, MS

Other Indie Favorites

Run Time: A Novel, by Catherine Ryan Howard (Blackstone Publishing, $25.99)

“Now THIS is what I love about Catherine Ryan Howard — plots that defy trends, characters dangling over the abyss. Run Time had me exactly where I love to be: teetering on a high wire, completely off balance, and loving every minute of it.” —Tarin Paradise, Naughty Dog Books, Nashville, IN
