OTHER HARDCOVER INDIE FAVORITES

Whale Fall: A Novel
Elizabeth O'Connor, Pantheon, $27
"A debut and a paean to the forgotten cultures on the British Isles. An intelligent yet innocent protagonist is confronted with ethnographers from the mainland, as class, gender, and education meet, while the prose mirrors island life."
—Richard Dixon, Politics and Prose Bookstore, Washington, DC

How to Read a Book: A Novel
Monica Wood, Mariner Books, $28
"A charming novel about the power of books to heal, connect, and teach. A prison inmate, her reading group teacher, and the man damaged by the inmate's crime are drawn together by their love of reading and their need for human connection."
—Susan Taylor, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, Albany, NY
