The Deliverance of Evil
by Roberto Costantini
(Quercus, 9781623658946, $14.99)
“Masterfully delivering a mystery that explores modern Italian history, the complexities of relationships, and the depths of evil, Costantini’s The Deliverance of Evil is an intriguing thrill ride. Commissario Michele Balistreri, once young and impulsive, now older and haunted, must investigate a series of twisted killings and their connections to an evil from years ago. Costantini has created both an unforgettable, complex character in Balistreri and a mystery that never stops.”
—Luisa Smith, Book Passage, Corte Madera, CA

While Beauty Slept
A Novel, by Elisabet Benwick
(Berkley Trade, 9780425273845, $16)
“Humble Elise Dalriss is a companion to the beautiful princess Rose, who, as the fable recounts, was doomed to die. The king’s aunt Millicent, banished from the kingdom on the day after Rose’s birth because the king felt she had put a spell on his wife, returns on the celebration day and proclaims, ‘You will all spend the rest of your life in fear.’ Then she disappears leaving behind a kingdom reeling in shock and horror. Through the eyes of Elise, Blackwell has masterfully delivered a mystery that explores relationships, and the depths of evil. Costantini’s The Deliverance of Evil is an intriguing thrill ride. Commissario Michele Balistreri, once young and impulsive, now older and haunted, must investigate a series of twisted killings and their connections to an evil from years ago. Costantini has created both an unforgettable, complex character in Balistreri and a mystery that never stops.”
—Karen Briggs, Great Northern Books & Hobbies, Hood River, OR

Wild
From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail, by Cheryl Strayed
(Vintage (Movie Tie-In Edition), 9781101873441, $15.95)
“The inspiring story of Strayed’s solo journey snaps you from the beginning and keeps you engaged the whole way through. It was a bold move, but in the years following her mother’s death and the subsequent dissolution of her family, Strayed was no stranger to bold moves. The challenges, both external and internal, that she endures while on the trail are balanced with stories about her life leading up to her brave decision to hike alone for months in the rugged Western wilderness. This is a story of survival in every sense of the word, and one that will stick with you long after you finish reading.”
—Deborah Casterina, Waucoma Bookstore, Hood River, OR

Counting By 7s
by Holly Goldberg Sloan
(Puffin, 9780142422861, $8.99)
“Willow Chance has just been orphaned for the hundredth time. An amazing book that will keep you up until you finish!”
—Barbara Kelly, Portland Bookstore, University of Southern Maine, Portland, ME

Steelheart
A Novel, by Brandon Sanderson
(Ember, 9780385743570, $9.99)
“Steelheart is a thriller set in a world where super-humans are the norm—and the super-villains are just as dangerous. The story of Steelheart and the events that led up to it will continue in this sequel. A thrilling tale of power, ambition, and revenge.”
—Rachel King, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, Albany, NY

Fortunately, the Milk
by Neil Gaiman
(Blue Slant, 97808007224088, $5.99)
“It starts out as a normal day: Mom is on a business trip, boy wants a bowl of cereal but there is no milk; Dad goes out for milk. But Dad is gone a long time and comes home with a story that will end up being one of your favorites. Dad is taken by aliens, jumps through a door marked ‘Do Not Open for Any Reason,’ falls through the space-time continuum, is found by pirates, and rescued by a stegosaurus—and that’s just the beginning! A tale that begs to be read out loud, this is destined to become a children’s classic.”
—Angela Mann, Kepler’s Books and Magazines, Menlo Park, CA

All The Truth That’s In Me
by Julie Berry
(Speak, 9780142427309, $9.99)
“Four years ago, Judith and her friend disappeared from their small town. Two years later, only Judith returned, but she is unable to speak. What happened to her in those two years is slowly revealed. Sometimes shocking, and at times full of passion and longing, the narrative is addressed to Lucas, the young man Judith has loved since childhood. This fast-paced and multilayered novel is part murder mystery, part romance, and most powerfully, the story of a young woman who overcomes trauma and ultimately finds her voice.”
—Erica Caldwell, Present Tense, Batavia, NY

All The Truth That’s In Me
by Julie Berry
(Speak, 9780142422960, $10.99)
“In this sequel to Forman’s Just One Day, readers are given Willem’s story. Willem travels from one place to the next and one girl to the next, but after one day in Paris with Allyson he is changed forever. He travels the world searching for Allyson but on the way he finds himself. Willem connects with people from his past and learns that love is more than a ‘stain.’ Forman knows how to pull at readers’ heartstrings and offers an incredible novel about a boy and his breathtaking journey toward romance.”
—Darlene Kolb, Mystery Ink, Huntington Beach, CA

Counting By 7s
by Holly Goldberg Sloan
(Puffin, 9780142422861, $8.99)
“Willow Chance has just been orphaned for the hundredth time. An amazing book that will keep you up until you finish!”
—Barbara Kelly, Portland Bookstore, University of Southern Maine, Portland, ME

Just One Year
by Gayle Forman
(Speak, 9780142422960, $10.99)
“In this sequel to Forman’s Just One Day, readers are given Willem’s story. Willem travels from one place to the next and one girl to the next, but after one day in Paris with Allyson he is changed forever. He travels the world searching for Allyson but on the way he finds himself. Willem connects with people from his past and learns that love is more than a ‘stain.’ Forman knows how to pull at readers’ heartstrings and offers an incredible novel about a boy and his breathtaking journey toward romance.”
—Darlene Kolb, Mystery Ink, Huntington Beach, CA

The Song of the Quarkbeast
The Chronicles of Kazam, Book 2, by Jasper Fforde
(HMH Books for Young Readers, 9780544336629, $9.99)
“Jennifer Strange and her motley crew of eccentric and erratic sorcerers may be all that stands between the United Kingdom and the corruption of magic by the forces of King Snodd IV and his greedy cohorts. Despite every foul plot and obstruction the King throws at Jennifer, she will not quit. But will her sheer determination, intelligence, and grit be enough to save the day? Fforde’s sublime wit continues to both amaze and amuse!”
—Rachel King, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, Albany, NY

Steelheart
A Novel, by Brandon Sanderson
(Ember, 9780385743570, $9.99)
“Steelheart is a thriller set in a world where super-humans are the norm—and the super-villains are just as dangerous. The story of Steelheart and the events that led up to it will continue in this sequel. A thrilling tale of power, ambition, and revenge.”
—Rachel King, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, Albany, NY

Fortunately, the Milk
by Neil Gaiman
(Blue Slant, 97808007224088, $5.99)
“It starts out as a normal day: Mom is on a business trip, boy wants a bowl of cereal but there is no milk; Dad goes out for milk. But Dad is gone a long time and comes home with a story that will end up being one of your favorites. Dad is taken by aliens, jumps through a door marked ‘Do Not Open for Any Reason,’ falls through the space-time continuum, is found by pirates, and rescued by a stegosaurus—and that’s just the beginning! A tale that begs to be read out loud, this is destined to become a children’s classic.”
—Angela Mann, Kepler’s Books and Magazines, Menlo Park, CA

All The Truth That’s In Me
by Julie Berry
(Speak, 9780142427309, $9.99)
“Four years ago, Judith and her friend disappeared from their small town. Two years later, only Judith returned, but she is unable to speak. What happened to her in those two years is slowly revealed. Sometimes shocking, and at times full of passion and longing, the narrative is addressed to Lucas, the young man Judith has loved since childhood. This fast-paced and multilayered novel is part murder mystery, part romance, and most powerfully, the story of a young woman who overcomes trauma and ultimately finds her voice.”
—Erica Caldwell, Present Tense, Batavia, NY

Counting By 7s
by Holly Goldberg Sloan
(Puffin, 9780142422861, $8.99)
“Willow Chance has just been orphaned for the hundredth time. An amazing book that will keep you up until you finish!”
—Barbara Kelly, Portland Bookstore, University of Southern Maine, Portland, ME

Just One Year
by Gayle Forman
(Speak, 9780142422960, $10.99)
“In this sequel to Forman’s Just One Day, readers are given Willem’s story. Willem travels from one place to the next and one girl to the next, but after one day in Paris with Allyson he is changed forever. He travels the world searching for Allyson but on the way he finds himself. Willem connects with people from his past and learns that love is more than a ‘stain.’ Forman knows how to pull at readers’ heartstrings and offers an incredible novel about a boy and his breathtaking journey toward romance.”
—Darlene Kolb, Mystery Ink, Huntington Beach, CA

The Song of the Quarkbeast
The Chronicles of Kazam, Book 2, by Jasper Fforde
(HMH Books for Young Readers, 9780544336629, $9.99)
“Jennifer Strange and her motley crew of eccentric and erratic sorcerers may be all that stands between the United Kingdom and the corruption of magic by the forces of King Snodd IV and his greedy cohorts. Despite every foul plot and obstruction the King throws at Jennifer, she will not quit. But will her sheer determination, intelligence, and grit be enough to save the day? Fforde’s sublime wit continues to both amaze and amuse!”
—Rachel King, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, Albany, NY

Steelheart
A Novel, by Brandon Sanderson
(Ember, 9780385743570, $9.99)
“Steelheart is a thriller set in a world where super-humans are the norm—and the super-villains are just as dangerous. The story of Steelheart and the events that led up to it will continue in this sequel. A thrilling tale of power, ambition, and revenge.”
—Rachel King, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, Albany, NY