The Issue:

Congress is debating 6 historic anti-monopoly bills aimed primarily at Big Tech corporations.

Large corporations like Amazon have become too powerful, harming small businesses and our democracy. It's time for Congress to rein in these global corporations—just like Congress did in the past with steel companies, railroads, oil and more.

The Solution:

Your representative needs to hear from you. The bills have enough bipartisan support to really stand a chance this legislative session. But Amazon's lobbying has some members of Congress on-the-fence. TK
